

Key Learning: measure lines accurately and understand the relationship between different lengths.

2.3.21

Context: create an aquarium

Success Criteria:

I can accurately measure lines in cm using a ruler

I understand the relationship between different lengths

I can create an aquarium with all measurements labelled correctly

Deepening: I can create worded questions about my aquarium for a partner to answer.

For parents

Practise and consider task: To be completed in books

Independent: To be completed in the box below

Independent

A rectangle has a width measuring 4cm and a length measuring 10cm. Can you draw the rectangle using a ruler and a pencil?

